Purpose:
To provide advice to ASNA and where appropriate design and develop and assist with the implementation of programs aimed at improving <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Indigenous participation: including involvement in the Alice Springs Netball Competition, exposure to and development in Netball and participation in Alice Springs, Northern Territory and/or Netball Australia representative teams. 2) Multi-Cultural Participation: including involvement in the Alice Springs Netball Competition, exposure to, and development in Netball 3) All-Abilities Pathways: Progress the existing Alice Springs Netball Association All-Abilities Pathway and increase participation across all age groups 4) Men's and Boy's Netball: Build awareness and participation of boys and men in Netball in the Alice Springs Community
Background:
Alice Springs Netball Association acknowledges the Arrernte land we meet and utilise regularly for Netball each year. We acknowledge the traditional custodians and leaders of the Arrernte land, past, present, and emerging. The Alice Springs Netball Association has successfully provided a social and high-level netball competition with developmental pathways for locals since 1971. In 2021ⁱ the association registered approximately 850 members with approximately 400 additional participants in extracurricular clinic/programs participation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Indigenous participation for Association members is currently between 19-20% • Multi-cultural participation is growing rapidly • The thorny Devils program as ASNA's All-abilities pathway had another successful season in 2021 and is looking to grow into junior athletes in 2022. • Netball Australia has committed to promote Netball as a potential Olympic Sport in 2032. This would require an increase in both Men's and Boy's participation in Netball. The 2021 Summer Season if mixed netball sees 31 teams and approximately 270 members participating. This is in addition to a Primary School Mixed Competition consisting of 10 teams from five local schools.

Alice Springs Netball Association is committed to improving participation of all groups mentioned above in order to represent the Alice Springs Community and provide a safe and welcoming environment for all members. Alice Springs Netball Association seeks nominations for an Inclusion Sub-Committee
